THE ROSE BALL OF '59

The Annual Rose Ball of '59 was held May eighth in the Parish Hall. A Japanese scene was created by a bridge and pagoda in the far corner, the multi-coloured streamers and the Japanese fans which adorned the walls.

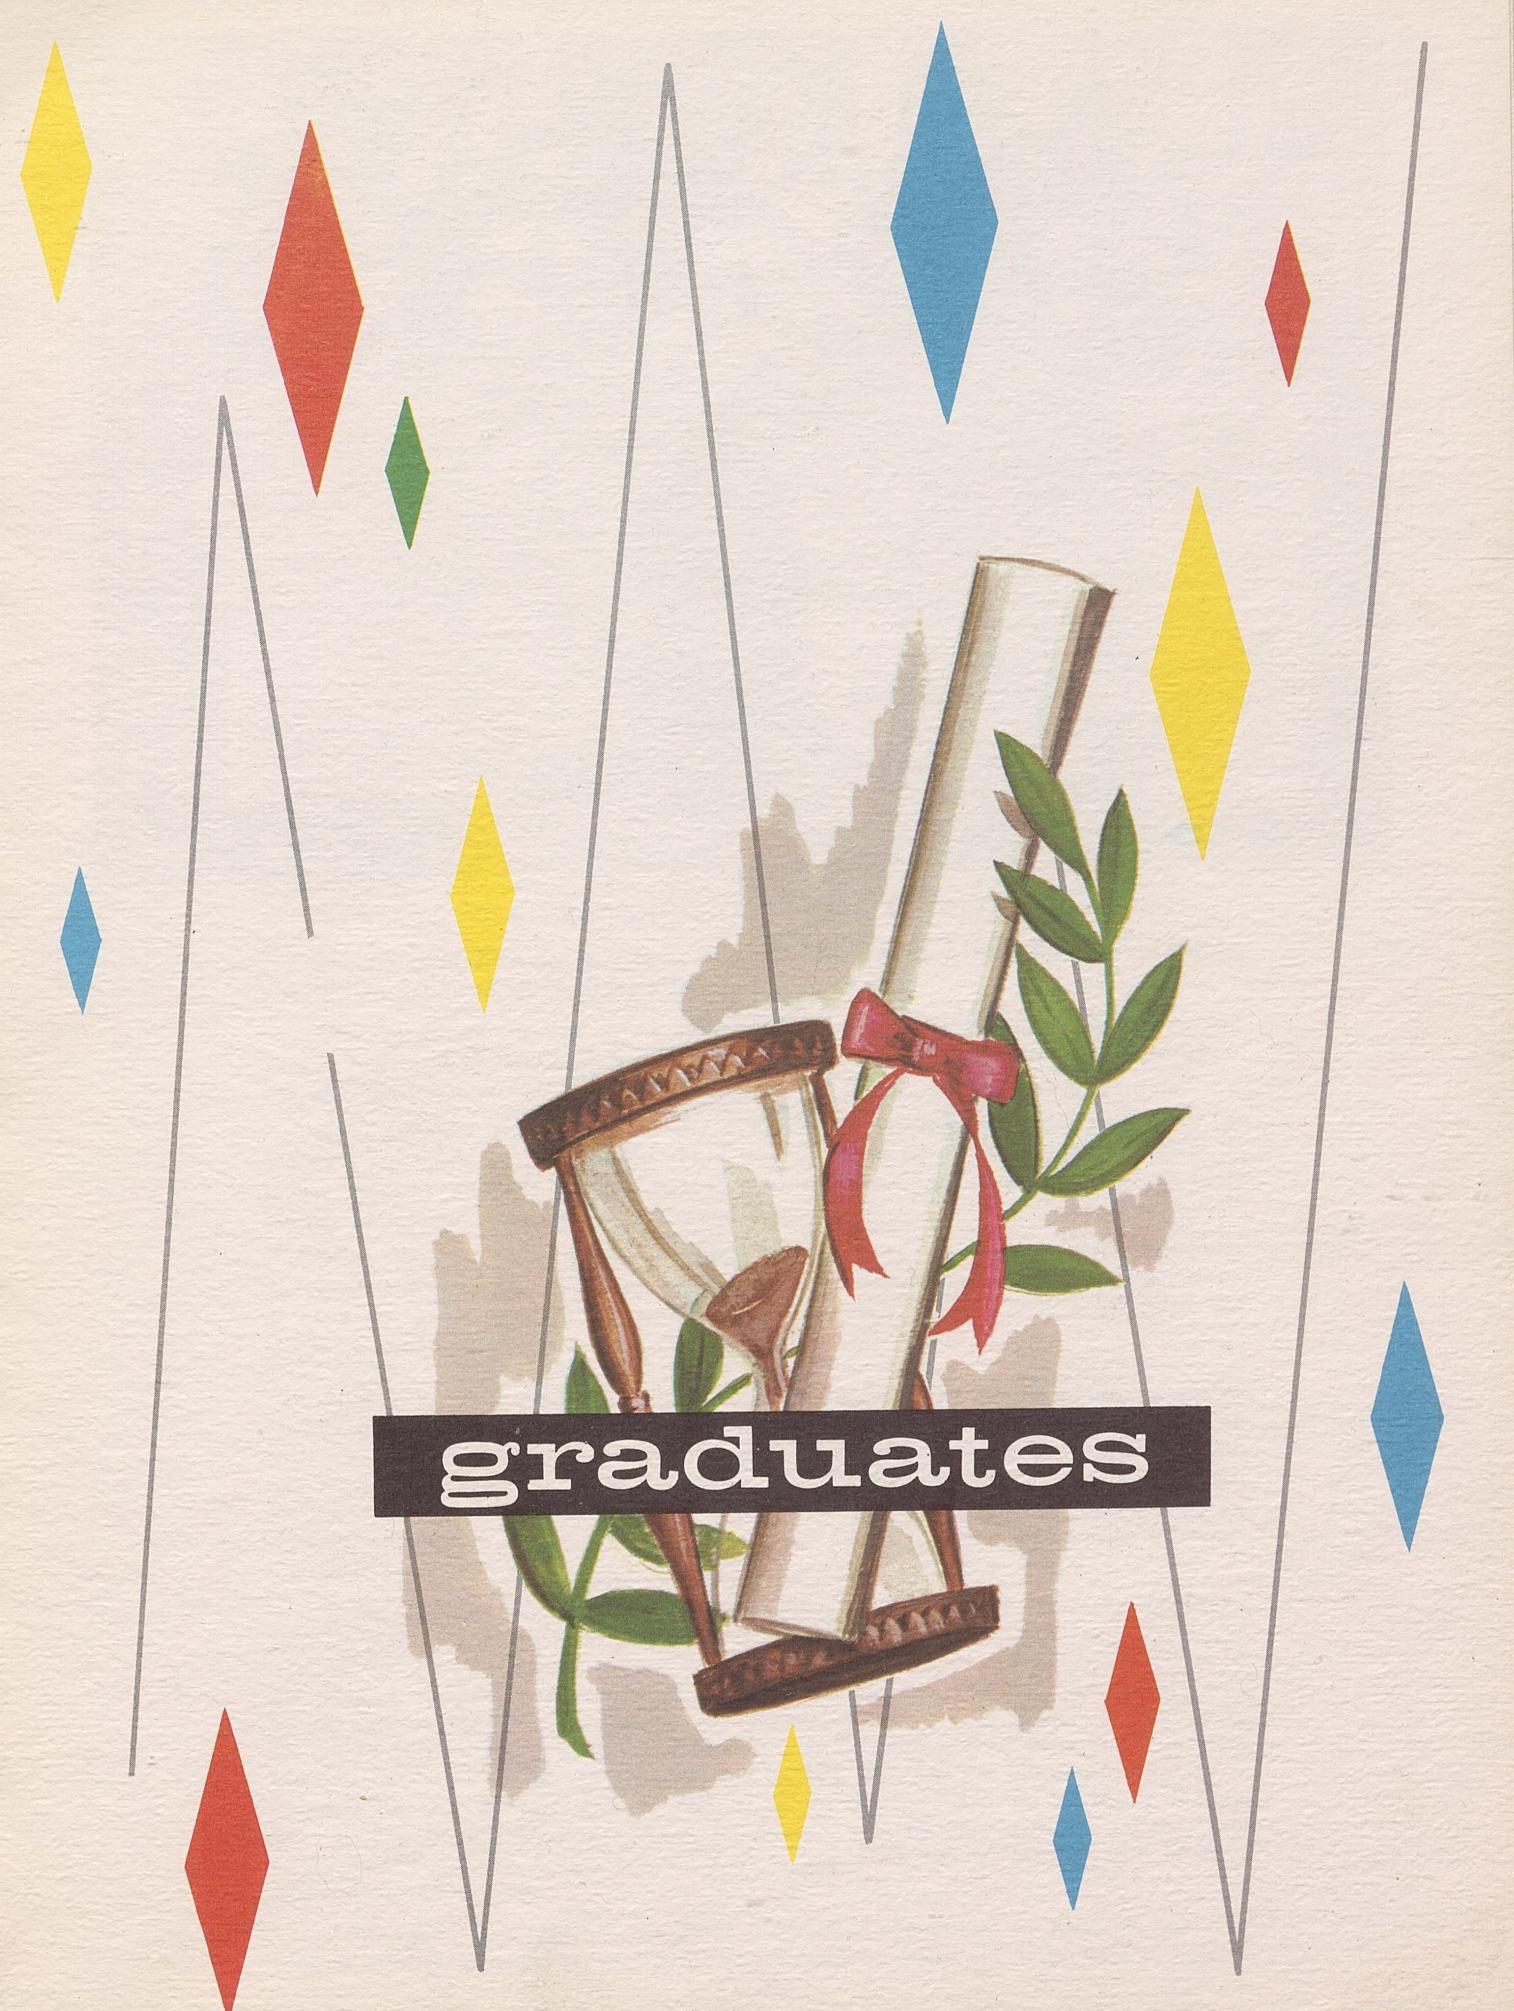

A cocktail party was held at the home of Miss Linda Thrasher, one of the grads.

After, the young couples danced to the delightful music of the George Hallock Orchestra. Then the main even of the evening arrived, Miss Janet Ladoucer, escorted by Gerald Deslippe was crowned Queen of the Ball by the 1958 Queen, Miss Patricia Ouellette. The lovely '59 Queen looked elegant in a vari-coloured gown. Miss Ladoucer was presented with a tiara of red roses, green and gold sceptre and a dozen long-stemmed red roses. She was assisted by her Ladies-in-waiting Miss Linda Thrasher escorted by Mr. Francis Deslippe, and Miss Pearl Bastien escorted by Mr. Eugene Reaume.

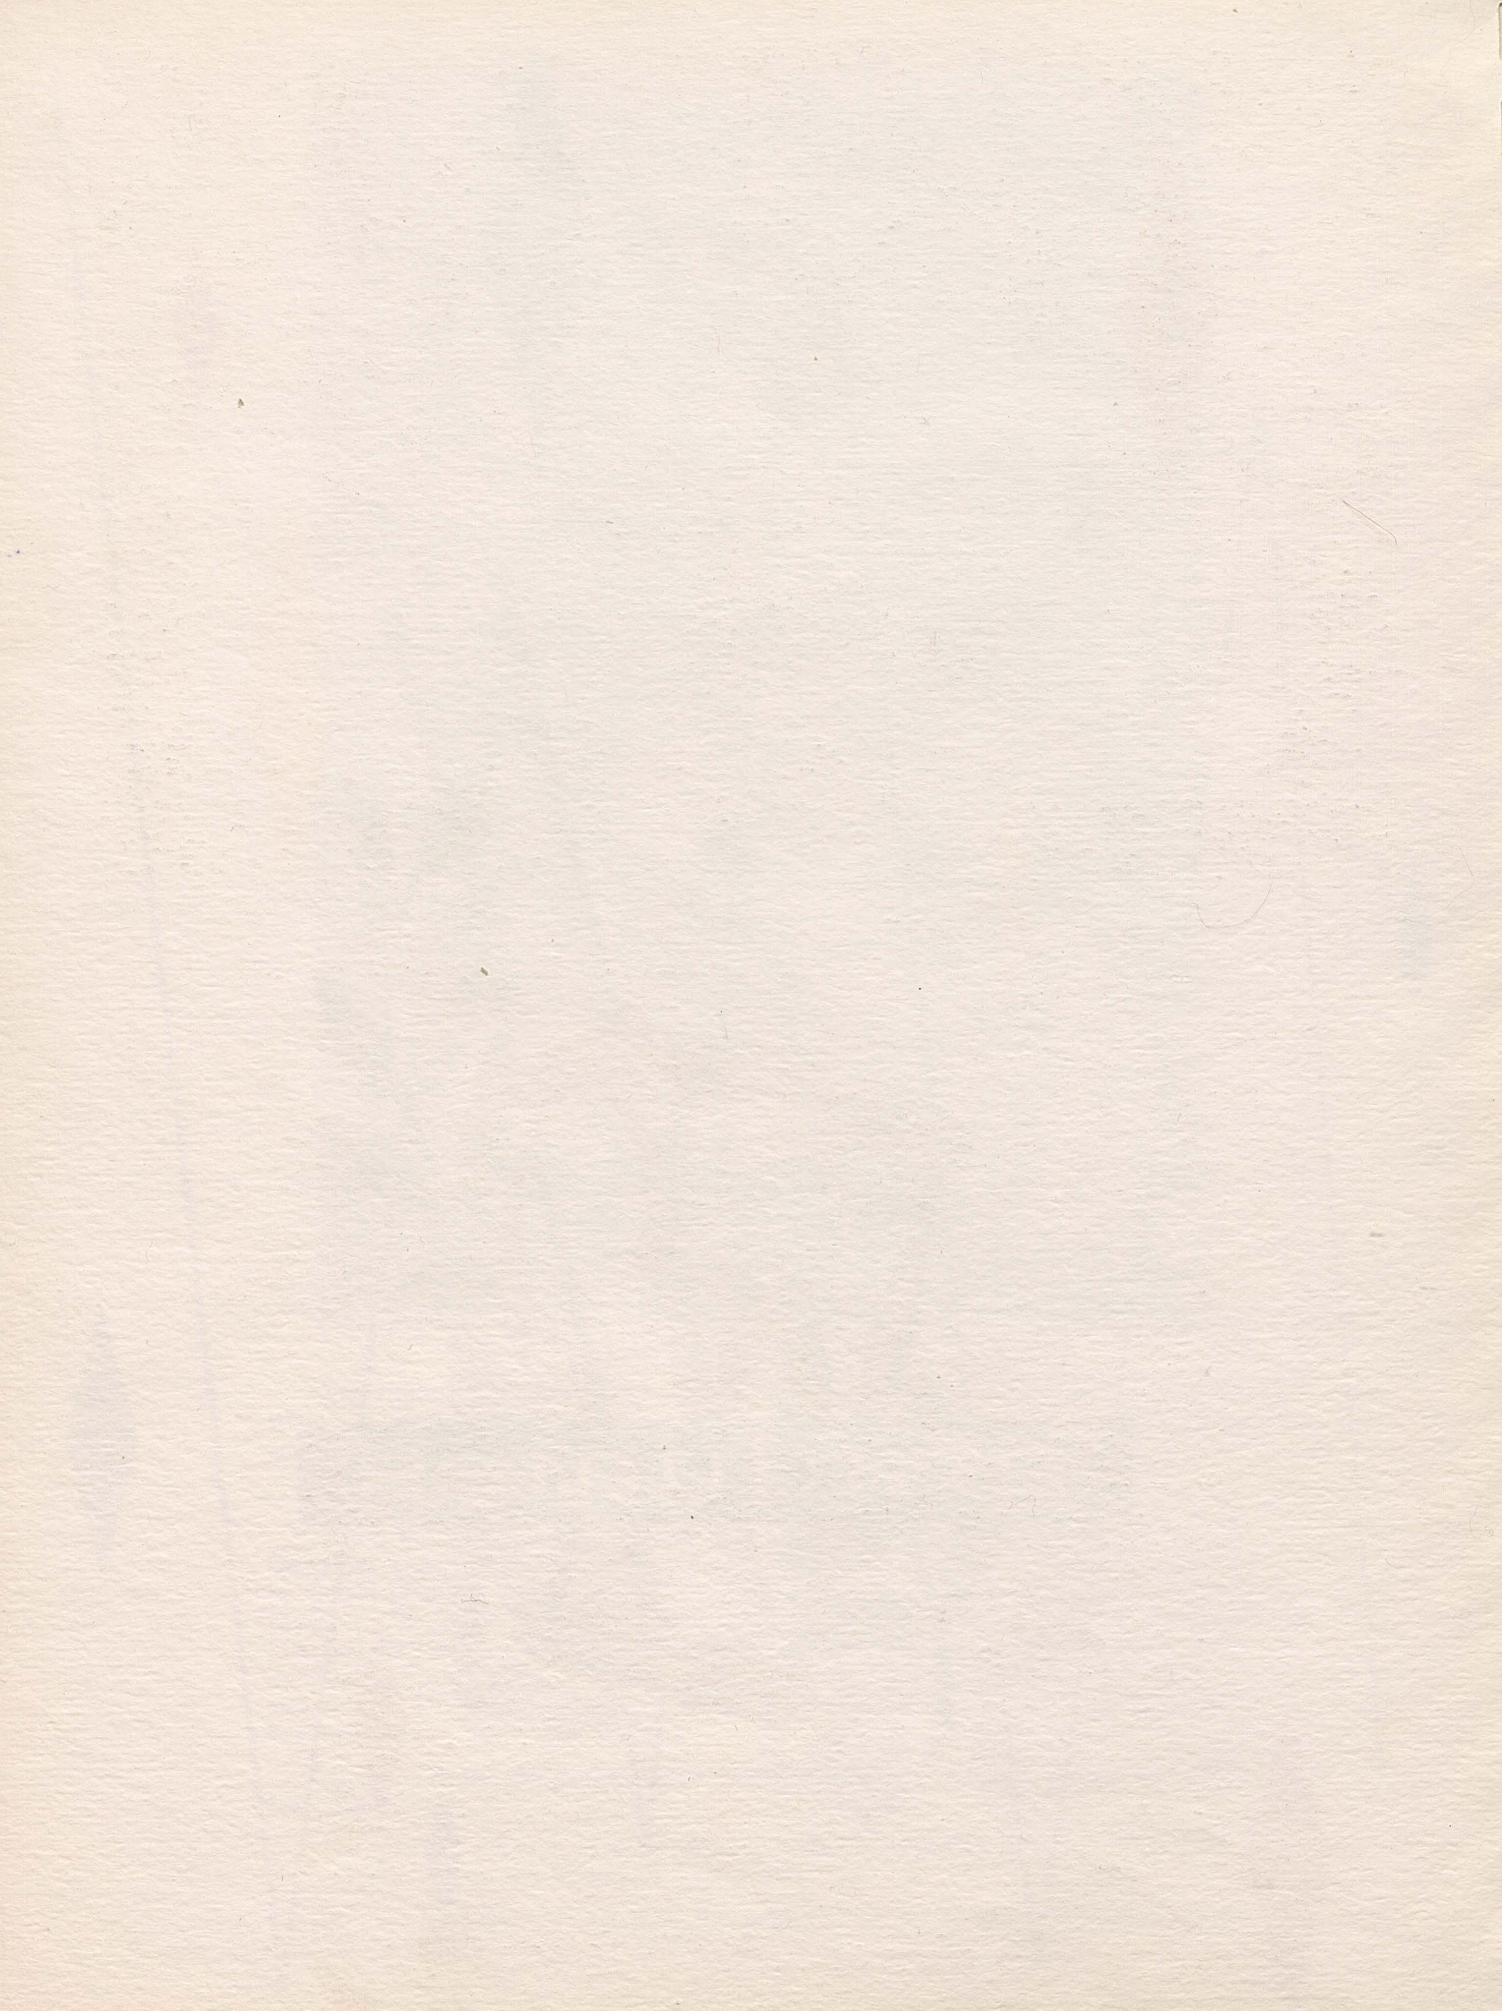

After the dance, the graduates and their dates enjoyed a party at the home of Miss Janet Ladoucer.

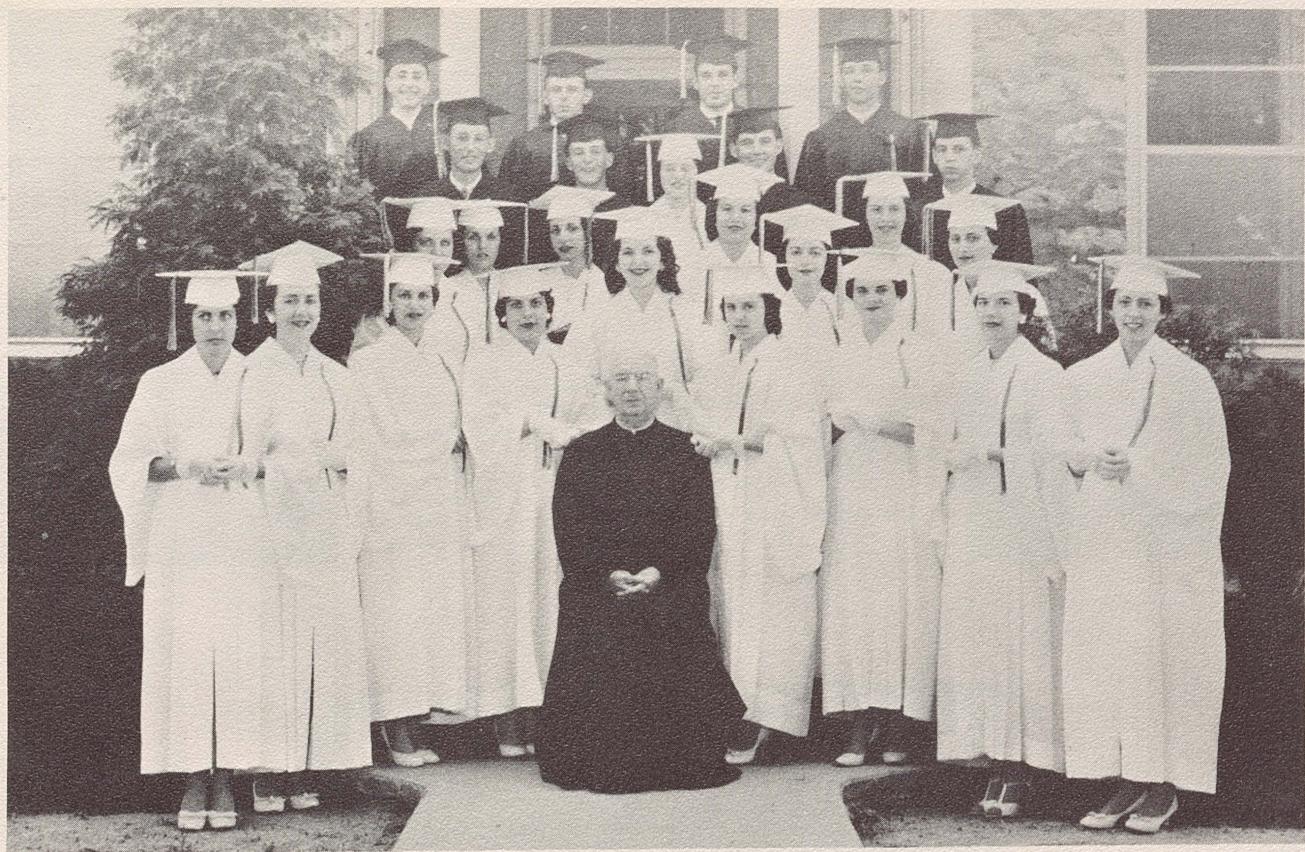

The patrons for this eventful evening were the parents of the graduates. Mr. Harry Spearing was the Master of Ceremonies.

We, the graduates of '60, wish the graduates of '59 success and satisfaction in their future plans.

ST. ROSE HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATION DAY

No day could be more perfect in every way than Sunday, June twenty-first for the twenty-five graduates of St. Rose High.

The "grads" in cap and gown attended the eight o'clock Mass celebrated by the pastor, Reverend D. Forestell, C.S.B. All received Holy Communion. The choir under the able direction of the Sisters sang appropriate hymns.

As a souvenir, the grads with the pastor were photographed on the steps of St. Joseph's Academy by Ed's Studio. This was followed by a presentation of gifts to Father Forestell and Mr. Joseph Stefani who are leaving Amherstburg, and to Miss Marcia Marontate, the Physical Education Teacher.

Then, breakfast was served by Grade XI students. The tables were beautifully decorated with graduation emblems and the school flower,—the rose. After the exchange of gifts the grads with their coveted class rings and pins returned home until the afternoon ceremony.

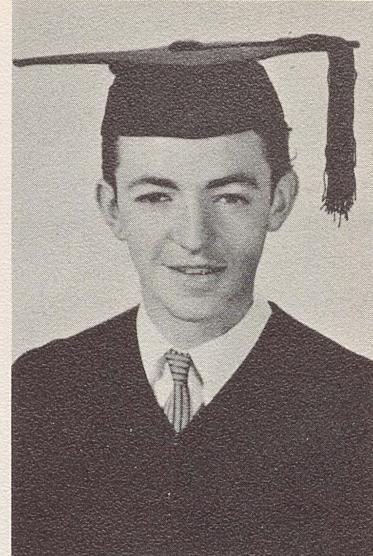

At 3 o'clock the grads with their attendants entered the church to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance." Mrs. H. Hamilton at the organ thrilled the hearts of all with joy and happiness. The pastor, Father Forestell addressed the graduates, pointing out the possible careers opened to them, but stressed the importance of unselfish devotion to our fellowmen. This is particularly noticeable among priests, doctors, teachers, and nurses. In the sanctuary, the pastor presented the students with diplomas and awards as follows:

Religious Knowledge, donated by the Basilian Fathers won by Miss Gail Robinson, Highest Average, a Scholarship donated by Mother M. Louise de France, Provincial Superior of the Holy Name Sisters, won by Miss Carol Burns. Scholarship donated by the Knights of Columbus won by Miss Alma Jean Deneau. St. Rose Scholarship won by Mr. Dale Bondy. The Hayward Jones Memorial Award won by Miss Janet Ladouceur, for school Spirit donated by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reaume won by Miss Penny Scarlett. Physical Education a) for the girls donated by His Worship the Mayor and Mrs. E. T. Laframboise, won by Miss Dianne Dufour b) for the boys donated by Mr. J. Pouget, won by Mr. Francis Deslippe. Prizes for French won by Miss Leonore Pillon, Latin won by Miss Barbara Amlin, Science won by Mr. Dick Bondy, History won by Miss Mary Ann Pillon.

After graduation together the grads consecrated themselves to Jesus through His Blessed Mother. Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament closed the impressive ceremony.

TEACHER'S MESSAGE

Dear Students,

We are proud of you—of what you have accomplished for St. Rose and of what we are confident you will accomplish in the future. May you grow in wisdom, in virtue and in grace until you are ready to take your place in a world which is in desperate need of truly exemplary Catholics. Never has the need been so great—the need for youth imbued with the spirit of Christ, strong in His love and courageous in His service. Holy Mother Church is looking to you to make this war-fearing world a world of peace. We pray that you will not fail her.

The past belongs to God, the future too is His, but the present is yours and His together. Work with Him then, be generous with Him, be what He wants you to be—and may He bless every one of you.

Your Teachers

PRESIDENTS MESSAGE

Farewells are again the custom at the close of another scholastic year. We are especially grateful for the encouragement, discipline and knowledge the Holy Name Sisters, Basilian Fathers and our parents have given us in receiving a Catholic education.

A prayer of thanks comes from our hearts at this moment of recollection. May Our Dear Lord and His Blessed Mother inspire and guide us in our future undertakings as they have during the past twelve years of school.

Grade XI

We are a class of thirty-six pupils, twenty-three girls and thirteen boys, who seem to suffer from "Monday Morning Blues" five days a week. Our teachers are Sister Patrick Joseph and Sister John Berchmans.

Ted Sinasac is our class president and also one of the star basketball players on our team. Our other stars are Gary Sinasac, the captain, Joe Renaud, and Mike Juenville. Although Tom Dufour is the tallest boy in our room, he plays on the Junior team along with Norman Talbot who is the captain.

Nancy Scarlette, Joanne Curtis, and Carolyn Beckett are the girl stars from Grade XI.

Both boys and girls are helped a great deal during the games by our two cheerleaders Joan Gignac and Valerie Moore.

Yvette Beaudoin, Diane Bastien, Rosella Shaw, Deanna Douglas and Nancy Hunt can be found completely immersed in a card game every recess and noon hour.

In the recreation room, Jean Dufour, Mary Beaudoin, Joan Bornais and Georgina Rebidoux keep up a steady pace to the newest rock 'n roll records on one side of the floor while Bob Burns, Bob Ferguson and Dan Simone keep the pool balls rolling on the other side.

Betty Ann Colombe acts as disc-jockey for the girls to save them time.

Dorothy Kost along with Olga Cremers spends her recesses selling chocolate bars for the Y.C.S. to Dorothy Sutts.

Judging from a certain crackling noise coming from the girls' side of the room Betty Oullette keeps "Becky" in the gum business.

Betty Allen and Clara DeMarco, the brains of the class, do their best to keep Sister Joan and Sister Patrick happy.

Sister John's pet peeve during Geometry period is Professor George Tomko.

We don't hear much from Mary Lou Simone. We guess it's because she's dreaming about her future. Don Grondin, Oscar Deslippe and David Droulliard are quiet too but nobody ever knows what they are thinking.

Well, that's our room. We are sure that if you belonged to our class, you would be just as proud of it as we are and happy to be a member.

10A

We have a class of 26 pupils. Our teachers are Sister Francis Edward, Sister Jerome Marie and Sister James Charles. Among the students in our class Ronald Renaud, Larry Hainer and Jim Mayville are our hard-to-beat boy basketball players. Our girl players Nancy Quinn, Judy Burns and Ileen Finn helped the Junior Girls. Maria Kehl, Bernice Amlin and Pauline Bezaire are the brains of class,—not saying that the others don't have brains. Ann McBride is a real wizz in math. We often wonder what Don MacCaffrey and Don Dube are thinking, sitting there quiet as mice. Sharron Bondy, Carol Allen, Carol Trombley and Mary Ann Rebidoux are always hard at work. Near the door we hear Dorothy Kavanaugh whispering away. At noon there is a big rush among Marcella Laframboise, Carol Pillon, Angela and Susan Galipeau, Carole Cecile and Sandy Deslippe to see who will get the first seats at Beckey's. Well that's our class. We are all very proud to be a part of it and especially proud to have such wonderful teachers as we have been fortunate enough to have.

10B

Larry Allen alert in class,
Everyone knows he's sure to pass.
Mary Francis Bezaire short and sweet,
Looks so coy in the front seat.
Nancy Bondy coy and petite,
Tell us Louis is she really sweet?
Stella Bripksa what a gal,
She sure makes a real good pal.
Shirley Cote tall and slim,
Always dresses neat and prim.
Ronald Dault tall and gay,
Sleeps in school throughout the day.
Patricia Deslippe our black-haired lass,
Makes a hit with all the class.
Regina Dupuis doesn't make much noise,
But watch out, she flirts with all the boys.
Nancy Gray who's rather shy,
Stares out the window when Grade XI goes by.
Judy DeHetre with her eyes of brown.
Everyone will agree, she's quite a clown.
John Iler our society lad
If only his memory wasn't so bad.
Flicia Kehl and Billy too,
Without each other would never do.
Anna Mae Laramboise of St. John's parish,
Is the one girl that Wayne does cherish.
Beatrice Lafromboise, says Sister Gerome,
"Your homework should be done at home".

Mary Mailoux quiet and sweet,
For any teacher—a real treat.
Janette Pigeon's lovely blonde hair,
Attracts many a masculine stare.
Martha Palon, on the ball?
Look for her—she's in the hall.
Richard Pillon—that boy with dark hair,
Chases many a maiden fair.
Dorothy Pouget on the beam,
During history class is in a dream.
Anna Renaud a McGregor lass,
Is always quiet in class.
Betty Lou Renaud speaking of laughs,
Keeps us in stitches in and out of the class.
Jo-Anne Renaud and pizza pie,
Will prove delicious to some poor guy.
Clara Rocheleau our Mathematical lass,
Ah, oui, oui, she'll surely pass.
Carol Rogers with her big blue eyes,
Is now attracting all the boys.
Jim Shaw a gentleman through,
And believe it or not a student too.
Susie Simone our Italian miss,
In everything is at the top of the list,
Petrina DeMarco all sugar and spice,
To the rest of the class is surely nice.

Paul Drouillard who wears glasses,
Is a genius in French classes.
Sharron Bingham with her hair cut short,
In school is always a very good sport.
Angeline Sapalski sits fifth in the row,
Ask her a question she's sure to know.
Carl Amlin who always wears glasses,
Never lets his Latin work sink in.
Mary Jane Borna is a jolly soul,
Giggles in school and pays the toll.
Judy Amlin a sweet little lass,
Is the president of our class.
Leslie Brown with a freckled nose,
At P.T. can't touch her toes.
Dennis McCaffery a shy lad,
When out of school sure is glad.
Leonard Pillon a farmer's son,
Seldom has his homework done.
Richard Sinasac is tall and shy,
We all think he's a real good guy.
Mary Helfrich likes to rest,
When it comes for a Latin test.
Nancy Steubing short and sweet,
Has a real keen beat.
Rosalie Pieterangelo, with long black hair,
Causes everyone near to stare.
John Curtis who answers the door,
Will have to get down and study more.
Maureen Paoli, six feet high,
Can look all the boys straight in the eye.

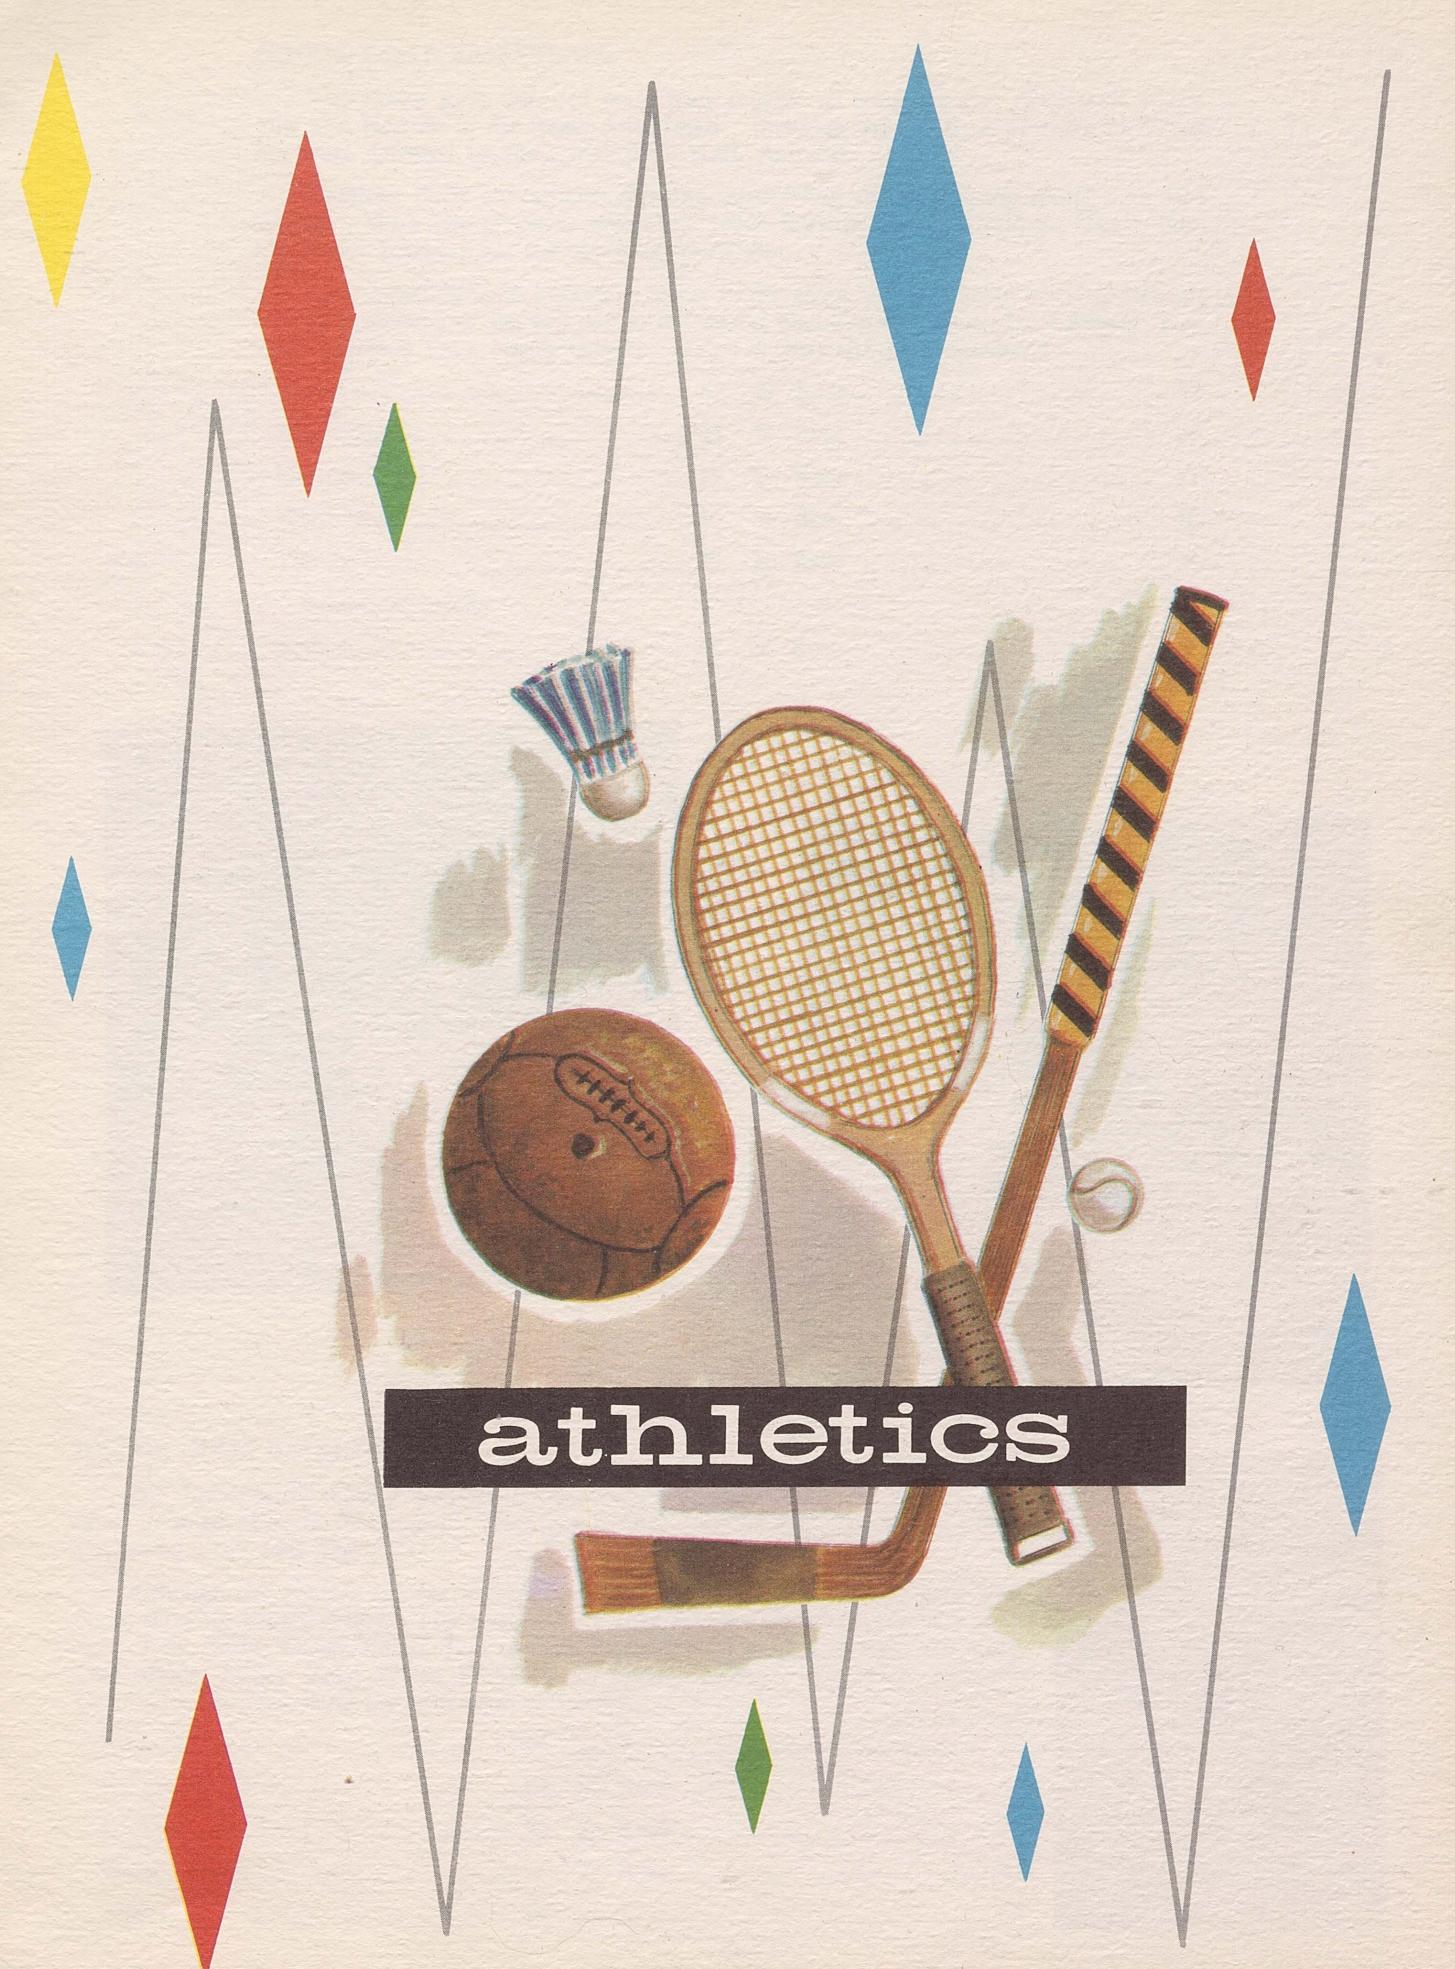

Wonders where her make-up goes.
Chuck McKenzie is no dream,
But he is the editor of the Teen Magazine.
Sharron Byron with her wad of gum,
Defies all rules and chews on.
Vickie Capaldi of Italian nationality,
Has a real nice personality.
Carol Alin, nicknamed chatter,
Talks so fast her teeth clatter.
Doug Jenner who is quite cute,
Only wears a size four suit.
Geno Mancini with cool black hair,
Finds it hard to sit on his chair.
Edmund Bezaire who is always tired,
Should be connected to a live wire.
Susan Burns a brown hair lass,
Meets her boy friends after class.
Lawrence Plant our human step ladder,
Is at the beck and call of pupils and teacher,
Ronnie Grant our blue-eyed six footer,
Will be some day a training master.
Roberta Niven our classroom riot,
Is never around when the classroom is quiet.
Margie Drouillard quite a dream,
To all the boys she's a teenage queen.
Eleanor Sapalski sits in the back,
Cross her wires and she'll give you a wack.
Beverly Pouget is only thirteen,
But in the classroom is quite keen.
Helen Sinasac powdering her nose,

Robert Cote who likes to eat,
Whenever you see him not in his seat.
Jack Dufour, short and slim,
Likes a boy by the name of Jim.
Bernard Bondy, not at all small,
Sure knows how to play basketball.
Lynda Bondy, bright and gay,
In basketball knows how to play.
Richard Barron, nicknamed Rich,
His ambition is to dig a ditch.
Garfield Bufford, nicknamed Gary,
Tells us that he will never marry.
Sandy Byron tall and slim,
Is always full of pep and vim.
Patricia Coyle who loves horses,
Knows perfectly all her courses.
Tom Delmore, a cute little guy,
With all the girls is really shy.
Emily Bastein with long black hair,
Never seems to have a care.
Carol Shire dreams of many men,
But goes with a guy by the name of Ken.
Aline LeClair always writing in school,
Never keeps the golden rule.
Olga Musyj sharp as a tack,
In all her subjects never lacks.
Colleen Kelly light on her feet,

Goes with a guy by the name of Pete
Christine Yankapich with brown eyes,
Is known especially for her sighs.
Darlene Pettypiece with curly brown hair,
She and Jim make a good pair.
Jim Ruston slim and tall,
Really knows how to play basketball.
William Pigeon a very funny boy,
Is always buying some kind of toy.
Anne Mayville short and sweet,
Makes the guys fall off their feet.
Gloria Pillon who is very tall,
Should learn how to play basketball.
Nancy Pillon built close to the ground,
Whenever needed is always around.
Camille Moore who wants to be a nurse,
Is forever losing that little brown purse.
Chuck Malenfant who just "loves school,"
Can't wait to get out to play pool.
Margaret Bondy who is always late,
Goes to bed at half past eight.
Alan Sunderland nicknamed Al,
Is dreaming about that certain gal.
Rita Anne Wigle who's real quiet,
We wonder when she'll start a riot.
Marilyn Ruston our McGregor lass,
Is always found sleeping in class.

SENIOR GIRLS BASKETBALL

The Senior girls, defeated once, were capable of tying for first place with Kingsville and Harrow in the league semi-finals. Breaking the tie, St. Rose came in second but were defeated by their traditional rival, Amherst.

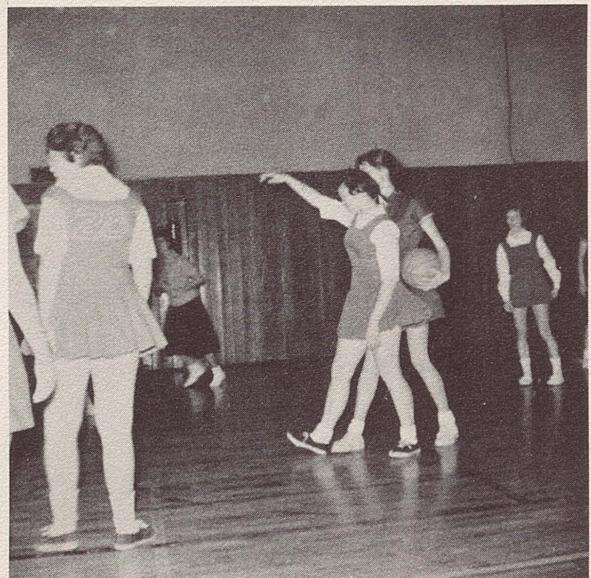

Kathleen Kelly (co-captain) showing outstanding ability, was top scorer with 19.5 average. With the precision teamwork Joyce Bornais, Sharon Deslippe, Gloria Finn and Nancy Scarlett kept the opposing teams alert.

Since guarding is an important factor in the game, the opponents found it difficult to keep possession of the ball due to the tactful guarding of Donna Mae Souligny (captain), Kathleen Finn, Nancy Quinn, Carolyn Beckett and Jo-Anne Curtis.

JUNIOR GIRLS BASKETBALL

The Junior girls showed wonderful school spirit throughout the season and finished in third place in the league. We are sure that with their ability, we will have a winning team next year.

Although the Juniors are not as experienced as the Seniors, they kept pace with them, showing expert ability. Top scorer was Nancy Bondy (captain) with 14.5 average. Judy Burns, Nancy Pillon, Judy Amlin, Leslie Brown helped to raise the score. The guards, Nancy Gray, Eileen Finn, Lynda Bondy, Christine Yakopich, Marjorie Droulliard, Maureen Paoli led their team to victory.

Semi-Finals:

Kingsville	51	St. Rose	41
------------	----	----------	----

The Junior boys had a fair season, tying Kingsville for fourth. Throughout the season the team was led by Norman Talbot with an average of 16 points per game, along with Larry Allen, whose average was 8.7. The others of the first string were R. Pillon, average 5.5; T. Dufour 4.8 and B. Bondy 4 points per game.

The other members of the team were J. Bezaire, E. Bezaire, R. Renaud, R. Sinasac.

Cheerleaders

"S-T. R-O-S-E" roared Sue, Joan Stella, Janet, Anne and Valerie at each exciting basketball game. All expressed school spirit which inspired our teams to victory. We are glad to have played a small part in their outstanding success. These events will be tucked away in treasury of exciting memories never to be forgotten.

ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST SCHOOL — Built September, 1950
Students of Grades IX and X

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE YEAR

Sept. 7—After a long and eventful vacation, the students returned to school happy, relaxed, and eager to increase their general knowledge.

Sept. 24—Even though the weather was not perfect, the pupils did very well in the events. Worthy of notice is that all events were completed as scheduled.

Sept. 29—The W.O.S.S.A. Track Meet was held at Kingsville. St. Rose placed fifth.

Oct. 9—The High School classes had a get-together at the Parish Hall. Each class put on a skit and a prize was given for the best one. The judges chose that of Grade XII.

Oct. 23.—The Autumn Whirl, the first school dance, was a success. The hall was decorated in autumn colours and the music was supplied by the Collegiens of Detroit. Orlando Deluca was master of ceremonies. Everyone had a wonderful time.

Nov. 8-22—The pupils participated in the excellent Parish Mission conducted by Rev. J. Storm, C.M., and Rev. L. Keefe, C.M.

Dec. 18—Grade XII had a Christmas party at school. The students played musical chairs and a new version of post office. The boys put on a skit and afterwards refreshments were supplied by Sister John.

Dec. 19—The Snowflake Frolic—The Parish Hall was a wonderland of dancing snowflakes hung from the ceiling. In the centre of the floor was a huge decorated Christmas tree. Snowmen and Christmas trees were seen in the windows. The Platones did a wonderful work by keeping the large crowd on their toes all evening.

Dec. 21—The students of Grade XII presented Sister John with a present — an alarm clock before dismissal for the Christmas holidays.

Jan. 4—Classes resumed after the holidays.

Jan 8.—Today marked the opening of the E.C.S.S.A. basketball season. St. Rose's opening games were played with General Amherst.

Jan. 9—The Y. C. S. study day was held at St. John the Baptist School. The discussions took place at the school and the lunch was served by the C.W.I. at the K. of C. Hall. The day closed with a well-attended dance at the Parish Hall.

Jan. 15—St. Rose Junior and Senior boys played St. Anne, Tecumseh, in St. Anne's first game of the season.

Jan. 21—The Senior girls at St. Rose were successful in winning the game with St. Mary's Academy.

Feb. 26-28—Seven of the Grade XII girls followed a closed retreat at St. Mary's Academy.

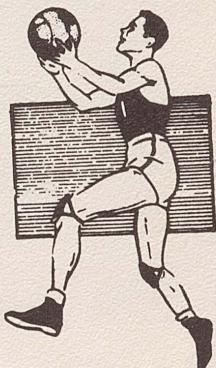

March 10-21—Mid-term exams were written by Grades XI and XII.

March 17—Grades XI and XII combined to give Sister Patrick Joseph a surprise party for her feast day. All enjoyed an afternoon of Bunko followed by refreshments.

March 24—The girls' teams returned the games with the St. Mary's Academy girls' teams.

May 27—The Annual Rose Ball.

June 26—Graduation Day for the Class of '59-'60.

ST. ROSE HIGH SCHOOL - ERECTED MAY 25, 1879

DO YOU REMEMBER??

When Sharon mysteriously "lost" her shoe?
When Ted broke two windows in the science room.
(.58c each).
When Bobby Burns' bicycle was hanging from a tree?
When Tony was Janet's son?
All the times Sr. John told Georgina to go to the basket?
When Sr. John made Jo-Ann sweep the floor?
When Sr. Patrick called Mary "Italy?"
The football game between Grades 11 and 12?
Grade 11 won, 12 to 6.
The days Veronica missed class to appear in court for reckless driving?
The day Donna Mae went out to ring the bell . . . but forgot to bring the bell?
The day K. K. ate Joe's lunch?
When Joe accidentally went into the girls' washroom to get some ads?
The day Sr. John kept 14 pupils after class for not having their Latin done?
The few days we got out for ads — a Wednesday afternoon?
The day Anne LaFerte cut Mary Kay's hair at noon?
The day Susan called the French teacher a "mattress" instead of "maitresse."
The time Joe and Sue blindly fed each other?
The day Mary told a 7-year-old throwing snowballs at her to pick on someone his own size?
The times Sr. John told Joe he was worse than an old woman?
The day Sr. John forgot to tell us that our homework had been cancelled that night?
The signals sent by Grades 11 and 12 on the radiators?
K. K. missing class? Reason? She couldn't find her shoes.
What fingers to put in the bowling ball, Anne?
The day Sr. John sold some of us dried-up doughnuts?
The times Anna Mae read between the lines and was caught?

CAN YOU IMAGINE . . .

Sister John — giving a study period?
Sister Patrick — following the time-table?
Bill Amlin — with his sleeves down?
